Resource Sharing

Interlibrary Loan Options for Libraries

Revised: October 2015

Interlibrary Loan (ILL)

Members of IHLS may choose one or more of the following methods to obtain materials through interlibrary loan. All Interlibrary Loan activity in IHLS is covered by the System's Resource Sharing Plan and Policy and the ILLINET Interlibrary Loan Code.

Direct Contact

Libraries may contact another library directly to request materials through interlibrary loan. Once the requesting library has determined that a supplying library owns an item, they complete an ALA Interlibrary Loan Form and send it via fax or email.

For more information on this method of ILL read the ALA Library Fact Sheet 8:

www.ala.org/tools/libfactsheets/alalibraryfactsheet08

OCLC

All IHLS Members have access to WorldCat Discovery for searching, which is provided by the Illinois State Library. To use OCLC Resource Sharing services, libraries must become members of OCLC. Through OCLC WorldShare ILL, libraries have access to materials throughout the world!

The Illinois State Library suggests that as a best practice, libraries that are members of an LLSAP take advantage of "Group Services" pricing to become OCLC Members. This is not a requirement and if an LLSAP library does not catalog using OCLC or participate in ILL through OCLC, they do not have to be an OCLC member. However, SHARE staff are required to remove non-OCLC library's holdings from the OCLC database.

For pricing information on OCLC "Group Services" or to determine whether or not your library has access, please contact Sue Burkholder at the Illinois State Library.

Libraries that participate in OCLC interlibrary loan and cataloging are considered full members of OCLC.

For additional information, visit: www.cyberdriveillinois.com/departments/library/libraries/OCLC/home.html.

Libraries wishing to only access the interlibrary loan features of OCLC should contact Alisa J. Whitt, Resource Sharing Services Consultant for information and pricing. Ms. Whitt may be contacted by phone 800.848.5878 ext. 4069 or via email: whitta@oclc.org.
