

Membership Considerations

IHLS has received applications for membership from two school districts. They are:

Hoopeston Community Unit School District #111.

Hoopeston is a K-12 district in Vermillion County. Jacki Gregory is the district librarian and oversees library services in five buildings. Chris Dawdy did a site visit on September 23rd and Ellen Popit visited on October 13th. The district has submitted the appropriate application and is compliant with membership criteria. When the application is approved, the district plans to move ahead quickly to SHARE membership.

Rantoul City School District #137.

Rantoul is a K-8 district in Champaign County. Donna Minor is the district librarian who also oversees library service in five buildings. Donna is in her first year at Rantoul, coming from the Oakwood CUSD #76, which is an IHLS member. Ellen Popit visited the district on October 13th. The district has submitted the appropriate application and is compliant with membership criteria.

Requested Board Motion: To approve the membership applications of:

Hoopeston CUSD #111 and Rantoul CSD #137

IHLS has also received membership inquiries from:

Opdyke-Belle Rive CCSD #5 in Jefferson County

Potomac Public Library in Vermillion County. Chris Dawdy and Ellen Popit have each visited and will attend a board meeting on January 4, 2016.
